

Sean Farhy Fights for Ward 7.

Sean brings the passion and energy needed to advocate for our ward.

Sean
Farhy

7th Ward Commissioner

“It’s an honor to serve as your Ward 7 Commissioner and fight for our priorities in Radnor Township. I’m about people, not politics. I respectfully ask for your vote on May 15th so I can keep fighting for all the good things we enjoy.”

As your Commissioner, Sean will:

- ★ Protect and preserve Ward 7’s community treasures
- ★ Save local jobs by keeping all Radnor Township services in-house -- NO outsourcing
- ★ Always be accessible through his Ward 7 Facebook page, town hall meet-and-greets and email newsletter

“My cellphone is (610) 574-2040. Call me any time with your questions and concerns.”

The Leader Ward 7 Deserves

All politics is local and Sean Farhy is as local as they come. He attended Harrington High School and University of Delaware, earned an MBA at Drexel University and has lived in his beloved 7th Ward for 16 years. Sean runs his own small business and knows about economical management for top results. He's collaborative, creative, passionate, and proud to serve as your Commissioner.

Vote Sean Farhy

Democrat for Ward 7 Commissioner

Regardless of party affiliation you can vote for Sean on May 15!

Paid for by the Radnor Democrats; Treasurer, Rob Armstrong

